

Breathing Garden

Work by Gerardo Wuthier and Nicola Colombo with help from Aglaia Haritz.

A small moss covered garden catches the eye. A dense fog hugs the ground. The garden comes to life as if the water vapor were its regular and vital breath.

